Hot Dining: E11even an Addition to Applaud

Maple Leaf Square is fast becoming a top downtown entertainment destination. Directly west of the Air Canada Centre—and steps from the Rogers Centre, too—the space buzzes before, during and after Leafs and Raptors games thanks to a huge outdoor TV showing ongoing games and a swanky sports bar with even more screens. Now, upscale restaurant E11even makes room for a more discerning clientele. Named for the eleven points of a maple leaf, the dark-woods-and-leather dining room specializes in North American favourites like baby back ribs ($29) and dry-aged New York strip steak ($55). The 600-label iPad wine list—with 33 by-the-glass options—is designed to be a crowd pleaser, too.
